2012 Retreat Leaders

Rev. Amy Nutt

The Reverend Amy Nutt serves as the Associate Pastor of Ooltewah United Methodist Church. Amy is a licensed local pastor and has served the Ooltewah congregation for the past nine years. Rev. Nutt gives leadership and direction in the areas of Congregational Care, Adult Ministries and Membership Development. Rev. Nutt also serves as Chaplain for The Lantern, an Alzheimer's Assisted Living facility in the Collegedale area, where she and a team of lay ministers have developed a model for worship geared towards the dementia patient. This model of interactive spiritual worship is now practiced in Alzheimer's units throughout Tennessee and Kentucky. Amy shares a passion for her chaplain work with the Collegedale Police Department and shares life with her best friend and husband, Johnathan, daughter Hillary and a very hyper Jack Russell Terrier, Gidget. To God be the Glory!

The Lifted Worship Band; with Worship Leaders Ryan Beavers and Arlyne VanHook.

Leader Ryan Beavers says, "The Lifted Worship Band exists for two main reasons:

- To see the name and hope of Jesus "lifted" up in music and worship with people excited about His power and presence.
- To see worshippers "lifted" up to a place of communion and connection with the Almighty God.

Lifted serves as Worship Leaders for the Ooltewah United Methodist Church and has the privilege of playing at other area events and conferences. They are planning a Mission Trip to the Czech Republic in the Fall of 2012 and would love your prayerful support."

{SIS} Hands-On Mission Project

THE HENDERSON SETTLEMENT

Thanks

Henderson Settlement is a mission of the United Methodist Church dedicated to meeting basic human needs in poor, rural Appalachian communities in southeastern Kentucky and northeastern Tennessee. Operating within the Red Bird Missionary Conference, Henderson Settlement currently administers roughly 60 programs and serves approximately 3000 people in the isolated communities of the Laurel Fork Valley.

Those attending our Retreat are asked to bring the following items to help fulfill the personal needs program of the Henderson Settlement:

- Deodorant, toothpaste, tooth brush, shampoo, shaving cream, razors, hand soap, cold and cough medicine for adults.
